JetStream Federal Credit Union Sponsors FCAA Golf Tournament

Miami Lakes, FL (May 28, 2010) – JetStream Federal Credit Union sponsored The Family Christian Association of America's annual "Communities of Faith-Keepers" charity golf tournament. Proceeds from the tournament support youth sports and family programs that are geared to help change the lives of thousands of children and families throughout the State of Florida. In addition to their sponsorship, there was a JetStream foursome including current CEO Jeanne Kucey, past CEO Bill Gregg, Board Secretary Gerry Dominguez, and plastic card specialist, Kat Beltran. "We are excited to be a part of this year's tournament and support the excellent that work that FCAA performs in our communities" said Jeanne Kucey, JetStream's Chief Executive Officer. "Our theme this year is, Maximize Change...Continue the Legacy!" announced FCAA President and CEO Richard Chisholm, "This builds on our mission statement, FCAA, A Place Where Lives are Changed." Mr. Chisholm is also a volunteer on JetStream's Supervisory Committee.
