JetStream Federal Credit Union Announces Puerto Rico Management Team

Miami Lakes, FL - December 3, 2009 - JetStream Federal Credit Union has announced their new Puerto Rico branch management team. Maria Rivera has been promoted from her current position of Assistant Branch Manager to Branch Manager and Luis Otero has been promoted to Assistant Branch Manager. This management team has over 26 years of combined experience with the credit union. Ms. Rivera began her credit union career in 1986 with CAA Caribe Federal Credit Union which was merged into JetStream FCU in 1998. She has served in a management capacity for the last eleven years. Luis Otero joined JetStream in 1998; he has previously served as a teller, head teller, and loan processor. Both Rivera and Otero are Puerto Rico natives and lifelong residents.

When asked what made Rivera and Otero such a valuable management team, Vice President of Sales and Service, Mara Falero, said "They love their community. They are proud of their background and excited to give back to the community in a new way." Jeanne Kucey, President and CEO agreed and further stated, "We can count on this team to serve the residents of Carolina, Trujillo Alto, and San Juan. They are dedicated to the Puerto Rico membership and uniquely qualified to meet their financial needs".
